

JANE HAINING ANGOL NYELVI
EMLÉKVERSENY ALAPÍTVÁNY

Számlaszám: 18004528-1-42

1064 Budapest, Vörösmarty u. 49.

Jane Haining angol nyelvi verseny

2013. december 10. 14:30

I. forduló

Időtartam: 2 óra

Az I. forduló eredménye:

2013. december 20.

Név: _____

Iskola: _____

Javító tanár aláírása: _____

Listening task

I. Listen to the text and decide if the statements are true (T) or false (F).

1. People used matches at home in the 1750s. _____
2. Most of our trains today are based on the first electric train. _____
3. The first computer was so big that it filled a whole room. _____
4. Pilots used biros in the First World War. _____
5. If there isn't enough vitamin C in your body, you should eat a lot of red pepper. _____
6. If you wanted, you could build a transparent house in the 21st century. _____
7. Szent-Györgyi found the formula of vitamin C in a vegetable. _____
8. János Irinyi became very rich. _____
9. Mr Bíró was a journalist. _____
10. Kando's first electric train ran in Hungary, _____

- B) ago
D) for
11. Italy is famous ... its antiquities and its pizza.
A) of
C) for
B) from
D) about
12. If I cleverer, I a doctor.
A) have been / would be
C) am / will be
B) were / would be
D) was / would
13. The notice says „NO PARKING”. We park here.
A) haven't got to
C) mustn't
B) needn't
D) wouldn't
14. I'm meeting Mr Roberts at ten, ...?
A.) am not I
C) aren't I
B) am I
D) won't I
15. Hundreds of crimes every year.
A) committed
C) are committing
B) commit
D) are committed
16. grow a lot of tulips and other fine flowers.
A) Dutch
C) The Dutches
B) The Dutch
D) Dutches
17. The coach for London leaves Budapest at 10 every Sunday evening. Are you sure _____ it?
A) on
C) about
B) with
D) for
18. I went to the cinema last night without my girlfriend. _____
A) So did I.
C) Me also.
B) So I did.
D) I went too.
19. You are not English, are you? Where do you come from? _____
A) I came from Italy.
C) I'm Italian.
B) I come from Rome airport.
D) I've come from Rome.
20. _____ you, I wouldn't drink so much.
A) I was
C) If I were
B) I were
D) When I were

III. Read the text then circle the letter of the best answer.

Guide to eating out in Los Angeles

by Marian Cummings

An inexpensive meal in L.A. doesn't always mean hot dogs, hamburgers, pizza or other kinds of fast food. Restaurants serving food from other countries are also becoming popular, and they have good food at good prices.

About a month ago, I decided to travel around the city and try the food in a variety of inexpensive restaurants. I found wonderful Chinese, Italian and Middle Eastern restaurants with food as delicious as anything you can find in Hong Kong, Rome and Beirut. Of all the restaurants I visited, I do have one favourite – a pleasant little Mexican restaurant, El Rancho, at 2905 Burbank Avenue. Now I eat there often because they serve excellent meals at reasonable prices.

Another exciting trend around town is the opening of new and inexpensive healthy food restaurant. One of the best is Patsy's Kitchen at 2170 Ventura Boulevard. The chef at Patsy's prepares delicious dishes with fresh fruit and vegetables and uses little sugar, salt or food with chemicals. You will never want to eat junk food again after trying the food at Patsy's. It's usually very busy, so you should make reservations.

I discovered a lot of very interesting restaurants and had some excellent meals. Unfortunately, it would take too long to describe all of them here. But if you're adventurous, try some new restaurants yourself. I think you'll make some exciting discoveries.

1. Meals in L.A. restaurants
 - a. are always expensive.
 - b. are sometimes expensive.
 - c. are always inexpensive.
2. If you want fast food, you can have
 - a. hot dogs, hamburgers and pizza.
 - b. French food.
 - c. Indian food.
3. A meal of fresh food prepared with little sugar and salt is
 - a. fast food.
 - b. healthy food.
 - c. junk food.
4. Junk food
 - a. often has sugar, salt and chemicals in it.
 - b. is good for you.
 - c. is like the food at Patsy's.
5. If you make reservations at a restaurant,
 - a. you probably won't get a table.

- b. you will be sure to get a table.
- c. you'll have good food.

6. An adventurous eater

- a. eats only healthy food.
- b. always goes to the same restaurant.
- c. eats at many different restaurants.

7. A trend is

- a. a good restaurant.
- b. something new and popular.
- c. a kind of healthy food.

8. If you make discoveries

- a. you find out about new things.
- b. you never try anything new.
- c. you will eat awful food.

IV. The life of Jane Haining. Match the numbers with the letters. Write your answers into the boxes below.

1. Jane Haining was born in ...

2. She lost her mother at ...

3. Jane was educated at Dumfries Academy ...

4. Jane Haining worked for ...

5. She took charge ...

6. She was in Scotland ...

7. 'If these students need me in the days of sunshine ...

8. She was thrown in jail on charge of ...

9. Jane wrote to a friend, Margit, about apples, fresh fruit and bread ...

10. She died for her beliefs ...

a. how much more do they need me in days of darkness?'

b. 10 years at a threadmarker's in Paisley.

- c. she was obviously starving.
- d. British espionage and helping Jews.
- e. Dunscore near Dumfries in Scotland in 1897.
- f. of Girls' Home of the mission in Budapest in 1932.
- g. the age of five.
- h. on August 16th 1944.
- i. where she became Dux of the Modern School.
- j. on holiday when the World War II. broke out.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	----

V. Put the words in the correct order to make sentences.

1 often borrow the how from do library books you ?

.....

2 children Christmas are forward my looking to

.....

3 bottom look exercise the the of 17 at at page

.....

4 usually party on do have your a you birthday ?

.....

5 tell can going me what is you on ?

.....

6 you London in did time arrive what ?

.....

7 can weather up climbers put cold with

.....

8 out find what last happened night I'll

.....

9 the against ladder wall put he a up

.....

10 as as running on long possible for carry

.....

VI. Complete the text with a word given in the box.

Bored happiness emotional excitement hatred sympathised noisy energetic comedian feelings

During the First World War, at a time when there was lots of _____ in the world, one man did more than anyone else to spread _____. That man was the _____, Charlie Chaplin. Audiences around the world watched his films and each new one caused a lot of _____. Chaplin created the character of the little tramp and people _____ with this poor man. Up until then, film comedies had been _____ and very fast. Although they were fun and _____, the audiences became _____ with seeing the same situations. Chaplin produced a different kind of comedy. It was slower and more _____. His films both made people laugh and touched their _____. Even today, his films are enjoyed by many people of all ages.

VII. Fill in the gaps with the appropriate word.

explanation problems make up higher time

1. Why was the maths book sad?

It had too many _____ .

2. Why did the child study in the aeroplane?

He wanted _____ education.

3. Why did the teacher write the lesson on the window?

He wanted the _____ to be clear.

4. Why did the boy put lipstick on his head?

He wanted to _____ his mind.

5. Why did Joe throw the clock out of the window?

He wanted to see _____ fly.

VIII. Match the first and the second halves of these proverbs.

1.	A friend in need	a.	seldom bite.
2.	Let the sleeping dogs	b.	without a thorn.
3.	We reap	c.	lie.
4.	Barking dogs	d.	but silence is gold.
5.	Speech is silver	e.	as we saw.
6.	There is no rose	f.	is a friend indeed.

1.	2.	3.	4.	5.	6.